

Parade, Street Dancing, Band Concerts to Feature Celebration Here Tonight

Procession Will Move Through Streets of City Promptly at 8 O'clock.

DANCE WILL FOLLOW IT

Pittsburg Street from Brimstone Corner to Pennsylvania Station Will Be Closed Off and Policed; Six Bands
Engaged for Occasion; Big Crowd.

Connellsville will be host to the county and part of Westmoreland tonight in its celebration of the victory of "our President" in the election last Tuesday. Thousands are expected to flock into the city for the parade and accompanying jollification.

Street dancing will be a feature, following the procession through the streets. For this purpose the section of Pittsburg street, between Brimstone corner and the Pennsylvania Railroad will be closed off and closed to traffic. Dancing will be free to all. That traffic may not be interrupted, Crawford avenue and South Pittsburg street will be kept open. Travel to the north in the business section will be by way of Meadow lane, which recently was resurfaced and is in fine condition for the purpose. Or Arch street may be used, either by way of Water street or Meadow lane.

Six bands will play in the parade and following it, in addition to a drum corps, two orchestras and the Republicans Ukulele Girls. Bands engaged for the event are the Scottdale Military, the Uniontown Veterans of Foreign Wars, Connellsville Military, Firemen's, Elks and St. Rita's of Connellsville.

The parade will form south of Green street. All organizations and individuals intending to participate are asked to go to the intersection of Pittsburg and Green streets where there will be a committee to assign them to places on the side streets that are to be used. The formation will start at 7 o'clock and the march will begin at 8 o'clock, promptly.

The line of march will be: Pittsburg street to Crawford avenue; then to the intersection of Pittsburg and Green streets, turning at the Western Maryland depot, returning to Arch street, to Apple street, south in Meadow lane to Peach street, to Pittsburg street, to Brimstone corner, at which place the parade will disband with the exception of decorated automobile floats and trucks which will continue southward to their parking places.

William C. Bishop, who has been in general charge of the arrangements, has been here for some time, with two fire apparatuses, Scottsdale with three companies, Scottsdale proper and Brownstown, and a band. Everson will have a truck and large delegation of men.

The Italians of Connellsville and vicinity are preparing to turn out in force.

Assurance has been given that the judges and other county officials will be in the parade.

Wearing of masks will not be permitted but marchers may appear in what costumes they wish, barring the mask. This is intended to avoid any possible trouble from masked criminals.

Gas Service to Columbus to Be Cut Off Tonight

By United Press.

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 10.—Stores selling oil burners and electrical heating appliances were swamped with customers today as the Columbus Gas Company prepared to cut off the city's supply at midnight. The only hope for relief was in a local court through which the city seeks to enjoin the shut-off.

At last week's election the voters authorized a 40-cent gas rate and the gas company claims it cannot afford to supply the city at that figure. Approximately 22,000 homes will without gas for cooking.

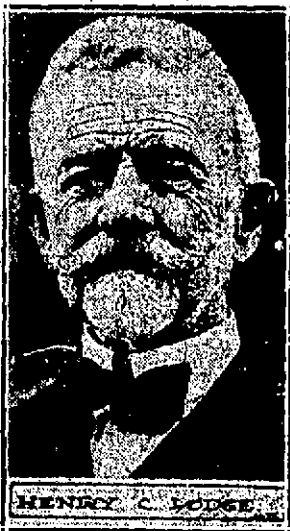

President Pays Tribute to Lodge

By United Press.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—Senator Lodge was "one of the great men of our time," President Coolidge said today in a statement at the White House. "Lodge was a prominent figure in Massachusetts before I knew anything about the public affairs of that commonwealth," the President said.

Secretary of State Hughes said: "The death of Senator Lodge removes one of the outstanding figures in our public life. He was a man of great intellectual power and rare culture and his career forms a highly important chapter in the history of the country."

Henry M. Geiger Crazed as Result Of Crane Mishap

Henry M. Geiger, former Connellsville policeman, is being held at the county jail at Greensburg. His mentality affected by a terrible experience he underwent the afternoon of October 6 at Greensburg when he was caught in the wreckage of two buildings that had been crushed by the collapse of a 16-ton steel crane at the plant of Daniels & Miller, junk dealer, at Greensburg.

Geiger was crazed as a result of the accident. He was taken to the hospital and after a few days he was placed in custody for treatment. Dr. John Anderson, the jail physician, is administering to him.

Saturday night and last night Geiger labored under a hallucination that the jail was going to collapse. His condition is believed to be the reaction from his experience in the building wreck when he was held for an hour and 15 minutes while his mouth was pressed down over a steel bar and a heavy weight was bearing down on the back of his neck. A slight slip while rescuers were at work would have caused death.

During the whole time Geiger's feet rested on a wooden block. Had he shifted his position ever so slightly, the rescuers with acetylene torches cutting away at the debris mass said, or had he fainted and lost consciousness before they reached him he would have hanged himself, such was his position.

Heavy Mist and Dampness Aid in Checking Fires

By United Press.

HARRISBURG, Nov. 10.—Mist and dampness over the greater part of Pennsylvania today served as a blanket, smothering what forest fires there were and preventing their spread. During the night six fires in Central Pennsylvania were extinguished in a total of over 41 reported over the week-end. None of those that night was over 30 acres.

More than 3,000 acres were burned over by the fires Saturday and Sunday and the fog and dampness as well as rain, saved thousands of dollars damage to timber. The eastern section was still dry and without rain, but considerable moisture was reported in central and western parts.

Court Thursday; Tomorrow Holiday

Armistice Day will be observed by the Fayette county courts. The regular weekly session scheduled for tomorrow goes over until Thursday of this week.

Plaintiff Attorney Brown asks all persons interested to appear at 9 o'clock on Thursday morning. Mr. Brown also asks all constables and aidmen of the county to make their returns as promptly as convenient in order that all cases can be presented to the grand jury which convenes the last week of November instead of the first of December which has been the custom for years.

Herriott Sends Greetings.

PARIS, Nov. 10.—Premier Herriott of France today sent to the United States an Armistice Day greeting in connection with the observance of the anniversary tomorrow.

BORAH WILL TAKE PLACE IN SENATE VACATED BY LODGE

Idaho Leader Announces Intention of Becoming Foreign Relations Chairman.

BUTLER MAY BE SENATOR

Manager of Coolidge Campaign Suggested for Appointment to Office; Funeral Scheduled for Wednesday; Senator Died from Effects Stroke.

By United Press.

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Nov. 10.—The funeral service for Senator Henry Cabot Lodge will be held at Christ Episcopal Church Wednesday at noon. It was announced today. Interment will be at Mount Auburn Cemetery in the Lodge family plot.

The senior United States senator from Massachusetts, whose opposition to American participation in the League of Nations made him a household word throughout the world, passed away last night after an illness of several weeks. Following a stroke last Wednesday the senator had been in a coma for about 100 hours when death came.

Senator Lodge was in his 76th year and had represented the state of Massachusetts in the Senate continuously for 31 years.

Governor Cox is expected shortly to announce Lodge's successor, who will serve for two years when an election will be held. William M. Butler, who was President Coolidge's campaign manager, is spoken of as a possibility.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—The death of Senator Lodge removed from Congress and the Senate of longest service, the Republican floor leader and the chairman of the important Foreign Relations Committee which played as great a part in history during the League of Nations fight.

Senator Borah of Idaho will succeed Lodge as chairman of the Foreign Relations Committee, but his successor as floor leader is left vacant. Senator Warren of Wyoming is next after Lodge in point of service in the Senate, having served since 1895, and an unbroken Senate presence provides the senior member of the majority of the party shall be floor leader. However, Warren is chairman of the Appropriations Committee and for many years has devoted his entire energy to that post. Also he has reached advanced age and some of his friends have doubted he might be able to stand the added burden of leadership.

A plan put forward would name Warren temporary floor leader and designate Senator Curtis of Kansas as deputy floor leader to attend to the floor responsibilities. Gillett of Massachusetts, because of his close association with President Coolidge, would be regarded under this arrangement as an informal administration leader, confining his leadership to debate and parliamentary tactics on the floor.

The Senate's death elevates to the chairmanship of the Foreign Relations Committee Senator Borah, advocate of Russian recognition and critic of American diplomacy in Latin America. Borah has declined to take Lodge's post, though he has the choice of the Foreign Relations Committee and the important Judiciary Committee, of which he is entitled to the chairmanship also by virtue of the death of Senator Brandegee. The Idaho senator's interest lies chiefly in the foreign field and his views on foreign questions, particularly Russia, were an issue in his recent campaign for re-election. It is known that Borah considers the fact that he polled a 50 per cent larger vote than Coolidge in Idaho as a mandate to continue advocacy of his "unorthodox" tenets.

U. S. Steel Orders Show Increase in Month of October

By United Press.

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—The United States Steel Corporation's monthly tonnage figures for the month of October showed an increase of 61,490 tons. Orders for October 21 totaled 3,525,270 tons against 3,473,760 for September 30.

Mrs. Harding Is Improving.

MARION, O., Nov. 10.—Mrs. Warren G. Harding's general condition "is slightly improved today," Dr. Carl W. Sawyers' daily statement said today. "Mrs. Harding rested comfortably last night," the statement said. "She has been able to take some nourishment and her general condition is slightly improved today."

America's Great Legion of Mercy Has Room in Its Ranks for All

Drive for Quota of $25,000 In Fayette County Will Get Under Way Armistice Day

Some Districts, Which Hold
One-Day Canvasses, Will Not Make Start.

Tomorrow, Armistice Day, marks the opening of the Eighth Annual Red Cross Roll Call for members. Over the whole United States through its three thousand chapters and their thousands of branches the Red Cross will conduct its annual membership campaign. The people will be asked to renew their allegiance to the Red Cross and show their appreciation of what it is doing by enrolling in its ranks for 1925.

The American Red Cross has the largest membership of any organization in the world and gives more to the members for the small fee asked than any other agency. A dollar a year makes one a full pledged member in the world's greatest humanitarian organization. Those who join can well feel proud of its accomplishments, for it is made possible through the loyal support of its members.

With the exception of Connellsville and few districts which hold their canvasses in one day, the campaign in the county will get under way tomorrow. The Connellsville chairman was to be announced this afternoon. It is probable the drive will be next Sunday.

J. W. Abraham, a member of the Red Cross committee for the conducting of the Roll Call, issued today the following statement calling on the people of Fayette county to join its ranks for 1925.

"The Red Cross Roll Call, opening Armistice Day, November 11, and concluding on Thanksgiving Day, November 27, brings to the people of this community their annual opportunity to renew their allegiance to the American Red Cross. By enrolling during this period as a member, or renewing your membership if you enrolled last year, you can do your part in making possible the continuance and expansion of the service of humanity that has become synonymous with the name and emblem of the Red Cross.

"The people of Fayette county have always championed the cause of the American Red Cross and they are now asked to contribute to it for work in this community, as well as nationally and internationally, the sum of $25,000. This is for continued service to ex-service men and their dependents, civilian families in need of assistance, public health nursing, health centers, clinics, first aid, life saving, home nursing, Junior Red Cross and other activities.

"Surely the response to the annual appeal of the Red Cross for membership in order that it can carry on its work of mercy among its own people and fulfill its promise to the ex-service men will be equally spontaneous and generous."

J. W. JORDAN, WORLD WAR VETERAN, DIES AT SOUTH SIDE HOME

Jesse Wilbur Jordan, 26 years old, a former member of the World War, and manager of the South Side Store of the Atlantic & Pacific Tea Company, died Sunday afternoon at his home, 1124 Race street. He had been ill for six weeks with a complication of diseases.

Mr. Jordan was very well known to people of that section of the city, and in this region. He was born in Vandeventer, a son of John Wallace and Elizabeth Harlow Jordan, both deceased. He was educated in the Vandeventer public schools and for a number of years was employed as clerk for the Union Supply Company at Lehighville No. 1, Bitner and other places.

After unsuccessful attempts to enlist at the entrance of the United States into the World War, he was finally drafted as a recruit on May 25, 1918 and became a member of Company B, 47th Infantry. He was wounded in the right shoulder and was returned to this country. For several months he was a patient in a Baltimore hospital.

On February 19, 1919, he married Miss Clara Baker, of this city. For the past three years he has been manager of the A. P. Store on the South Side. In addition to his widow he is survived by two daughters, Mary Louise and Betty Jane, a brother, Edward of Uniontown and a half-sister, Miss Ruth Jordan of Jeannette. He was a member of the First Presbyterian Church of this city and of the Million L. Bishop Post, No. 301, the American Legion.

He will be buried on Tuesday afternoon with full military honors. Services will be held at the home at 2:30 o'clock with Rev. J. L. Proudfoot, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, officiating. Rev. J. R. Dorman, pastor of the Trinity Reformed Church, will attend in a body and have charge of the service at the grave. Interment in charge of Funeral Director C. C. Mitchell, will be made at Dickerson Run Union Cemetery.

STORES CLOSE BETWEEN 11-1 ARMISTICE DAY

All leading stores of the city will be closed tomorrow between 11 and 1 o'clock in observance of Armistice Day. Barber shops will be closed all day.

Girl's Arm Broken by Fall.

Mabel May McGinnis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. McGinnis of East Connellsville, suffered the fracture of her left arm Sunday when she tripped and fell while at play.

Three Arrests Made.

Three arrests were made over the week-end. All were given the usual maximum sentences of $100 fine or 90 days in jail, drunkenness being the charge against all.

STEEL MAKERS SEE BETTER CONDITIONS IN THEIR INDUSTRY

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 10.—The national election now out of the way, business as it affects the iron and steel properties, is expected to be maintained in a more consistent way. Steel producers look for immediate betterment, with a response in operating schedules and earnings in November and December.

The election results were pleasing in every way to the more conservative interests of this district, who feel the greatest confidence in President Coolidge and his policies, and believe they will stimulate business and industrial prosperity.

The election outcome is expected to produce more stable business and industrial conditions in 1925, together with more regular employment.

Leaders in the district feel that it faces a prosperous period, and that their plants must be in the best possible physical condition to take advantage of larger business.

Meanwhile, workmen generally throughout this district anticipate a period of more regular employment, and do not look for any wage cuts.

Work this year with many men has been somewhat irregular, owing to the spotty condition of the steel market, especially during the summer months. Workers generally are anticipating steadier employment at remunerative rates of compensation.

Increased Operation At the Valley Mills

NEW CASTLE, Nov. 10.—Mills of the Shamango Valley will show an appreciable increase in operations within the next 30 days according to manufacturers who report inquiries pouring in on a larger scale than at any time within the past three months. Railroad equipment orders totaling many thousands of dollars have been placed and business approximating more than $2,000,000 will be placed at a near date.

Carnegie Steel Company reported the heaviest tonnage schedule last week that it had for several months at the Sharon-Parallel works. Eight open hearth furnaces were being operating and it is likely that a second blast furnace will be ordered on at a near date.

For the first time in many months Valley blast furnaces are shipping pig iron from "stock." The Carnegie Steel Company has blown in its furnace at Mingo Junction.

Pig Iron Market Healthier.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 10.—Small steady buying continues to characterize the Northern foundry and millable iron market here. Since election the market has taken on a healthier aspect. Prices display firmer tendencies.

More Sheet Buying Anticipated.

YOUNGSTOWN, Nov. 10.—Although the sheet mill schedule was down considerably last week, makers anticipate more buying now that the election outcome is known.

More Lively Inquiry for Iron.

BUFFALO, Nov. 10.—Sellers report lively inquiry in pig iron especially for first quarter of 1925 delivery.

More Light Ball Orders.

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 10.—Makers report more orders for light balls coming through but with no individual increase in tonnage. Cast iron operators, not wishing large sums of money tied up in light rail stocks, are buying only to cover needs in sight.

Prices of Scrap Are Up.

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 10.—Prices are up on the more prominent descriptions of scrap in the Pittsburgh district market. This is plainly a reflection of the election.

South Connellsville Folks Complain About Pegs in Sidewalks

South Connellsville residents are complaining about grating pegs that are in the middle of the pavements at that place. According to W. R. Hammer, of that place, the pegs are between four and six inches in height and are placed in the middle of the pavement. These pegs, according to Mr. Hammer, have been the cause of several accidents recently that may prove to be serious. Mrs. Hammer, according to her husband, tripped over one of the pegs, and is suffering from body bruises. Another woman also tripped over them and she, too, is badly bruised.

In another place, it was said a large stone pile is in the middle of the pavement, and the street is not barricaded and during the night, there is no light.

Mr. Hammer believes that it is due to neglect and lack of foresight on "somebody's" part; otherwise they would be removed or else the street barricaded.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—There is no thrill like the thrill of a vote of confidence given by the American people to a servant in public office—and as Calvin Coolidge sat at his desk Saturday and received caller after caller his eyes seemed to show plainly the light of an eagerness to fulfill what so many voters expect of him.

The President was full of smiles, happiness was written in every sentence he uttered, he appeared somehow to be relieved of a great strain. Perhaps he has not been conscious of that strain. But it was a combination of shyness and caution and great modesty. Placed in office by the hand of Providence, he felt a responsibility to follow in the footsteps of another. Appointments were to a large extent guided by commitments made by his predecessor.

Inauguration may be four months away but to all intents and purposes the second term of President Coolidge began this week. The ceremony on March 4 will be of only technical and historical importance. For President Coolidge is turning toward his tasks with a feeling that henceforth he must fulfill the pledges of his campaign.

Greatest among those pledges was a promise to practice economy. Foremost among the impressions of Calvin Coolidge among the voters generally was one that emphasized his thrift, his life-time habit of careful expenditure. It has remained with him in the White House. It was the basis of his many votes in the last session of Congress. He had been advised that more votes are obtained by satisfying the demands of members of Congress for compensation to their constituents in the form of another whether it was an increase in pay to the postal service or veterans pensions but Mr. Coolidge chose to believe the wiser policy in the long run was to veto any proposed expenditure if it was not justified.

There probably will be an increase in the compensation to postal

PET GROUNDHOG IN RETIREMENT FOR THE WINTER

Special to The Courier.

MOUNT PLEASANT, Nov. 10.—There has been weeping in the family of Edward Stevens of East Main street for the past few days by the younger members of the family over a pet groundhog. The pet was more than willing to be such during the summer but last week he went into a hole under the coal house in the back yard and just can't be coaxed from his hiding place. Early last May, Mr. Stevens brought to his home a baby "chuck" with its eyes not yet open. The pet was named "Giggs" and soon responded to its name. For a short time it was fed on milk, and as it grew older the family, hoping to please Giggs, went to the woods stripped bark and brought this and other things it was known a groundhog would eat, but he had developed a sweet tooth since he left the woods and only cared for ice cream, candy and other sweets. His playmate the front porch and made himself very much at home, playing with the children in much the same manner as a cat. It is feared now that "Giggs" will have to be left alone until February 2 when they will watch carefully for any move on Groundhog Day.

Fire Prevents Church Service At Meyersdale

Special to The Courier.

MEYERSDALE, Nov. 10.—The Sunday services in Zion Evangelical Lutheran Church had to be called off on account of a fire which was discovered about 8:30 o'clock in the morning. The fire was in the furnace room, but how it caught is unknown. Smoke had filled the main auditorium and Sunday school room, making it impossible to hold services.

The congregation just recently erected a Sunday school room and had the entire church improved by painting inside and out.

HEAVY TRAVEL AT VANDERBILT WITH NEW ROAD OPENED

Hundreds of Curious Motorists Drive Over Repaired Thoroughfare During Week-End.

OTHER NEWS OF THE DAY

Special to The Courier.
VANDERBILT, Nov. 10.—With the opening of the new Vanderbilt-to-Connelville road early Saturday morning, the populace witnessed heavy traffic over the week-end. The caravan of motor cars, trucks, and other vehicles, from Connelville and return on Saturday gave the town an "exciting" time. The steady stream of cars pouring into the town did not stop, but continued until the wee hours Sunday morning. Close to noon Sunday, the motorists began to throng the thoroughfare.

A garage repairman estimated the number of cars passing Reed's Garage during the first two days at 3,500.

S. S. Convention.
The Sunday school convention of Dawson District No. 15 will be held Sunday, November 16, at the East Liberty Presbyterian Church. There will be afternoon and evening sessions. Clears Complexion

"Oh! how clear and beautiful your complexion is today, my dear!"

THERE is a certain joy—a certain pride—in knowing you are admired, whether it be from father, brother, husband or sweetheart! And back of that joy is the satisfaction of knowing all is well.

Men are fascinated by the charms of beauty. Women gaze with envy, secretly jealous, perhaps, wondering—hoping—praying for that attractiveness which is not theirs. But why the wondering—the hoping—the praying for that coveted attractiveness—that clear skin—that beauty. A clear skin—is the barometer of one's condition. A healthy skin radiates health. Pure, clean blood means a clear skin.

S.S.S. is waiting to help you. It will rid your blood of its impurities and give you that clear complexion. Since 1826 S.S.S. has been ridding people of blood impurities, from pimples, from blackheads, boils, eczema, and from rheumatism, too. Because S.S.S. is made from fresh herbs and barks, it may be taken with perfect safety. Try it yourself. You will not only look better, but you will feel better, too.

S.S.S. is sold at all good drug stores in two sizes. The larger size is more economical.

Immensity of Waters

Stirs the Imagination

Picture a place of inky darkness and intense cold; a region to which the rays of the sun never have penetrated; a barren waste seemingly unending, bereft of vegetation and air, with oozy slopes inhabited by queer, crawling creatures; a place where no man could exist for an instant, where no work of man could be placed without being crushed to shapeless uselessness under a weight greater than all the mountains of the earth.

Most of our globe is like that. For that is the bottom of the sea, as pictured by modern science, writes Raymond J. Brown in the Popular Science Monthly.

In round numbers the earth's surface consists of 57,000,000 square miles of land and 140,000,000 square miles of water. These figures, however, give but a vague idea of the real immensity of the vast, marvelous sea.

The average depth of sea is five times greater than the average height of land above sea level over the whole earth, the average depth of the sea being more than two and one-half miles, while the average height of land is half a mile. If Mount Everest, tallest mountain on earth, five and one-half miles high, were dropped into one of the deepest parts of the ocean, its summit would be submerged by more than half a mile. In fact, if all the land could be leveled off flush with the sea, and all the debris dumped in the water, the sea could scarcely be changed at all. There still would be an ocean one and three-fourths miles deep.

World Enriched by

Genius in Poverty

Art? What have "idle riches" done for that? By rights they should have produced, they should have created, but so far as output goes their contribution has been disappointing. One often hears the suggestion made that young people of artistic promise should be "endowed" to create. "If only he had a little more money, and leisure—what great things he would do!" Would not, I believe, a word to that effect, that the wolf at the door has often been one of the most powerful incentives toward artistic creation.

Of course there are volcanic gifts like those of Shelley or Blake that erupt spontaneously and irresistibly, regardless of the consequences. But many of the greatest artists have been goaded on to creation by need. Shakespeare, Chatterton, and (coming a long way after these) Walter Scott, Doctor Johnson, Anthony Trollope. On the whole, great artists have been not only hard workers, but men who have had to work hard. Violet Bonham-Carter in Good Housekeeping.

Early Polo Games

It is a long vista back to the historic day when, in 1871, two cavalry teams played the first polo game on English soil with a billiard ball and hockey sticks. To Prospect Park, Brooklyn, when the elder Bonnet and Foxhall Keene staged the first game on American soil in 1870. Yet these two events have made polo truly international. The tactics of those early players of the eighties have been profoundly modified until the game has now become a science, in which the pony has gradually come to share the honors with his rider.

Fair Offer

A freshly dressed youth was buzzing around the foreman of a construction gang in hopes of picking up a soft job as timekeeper. "I have nothing like that left," said the husky foreman. "You say you need work. If you need work, why don't you try hockcarrying?" "I ain't strong enough to carry one of these hocks." "Now, look here, lad, I'll make you a fair offer. If you'll lead me to work I'll call four bricks a load."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Observation Relieved Monotony of Illness

It has often been my feeling that perhaps the happiest man is the healthy bookworm, who, by laying out a quarter for a second-hand volume, can get as much pleasure in a week as the other fellow, more dependent upon expensive entertainments and indulgences that draw on his wad. The former is among that happy class that can say with the poet, "My mind to me a kingdom is; such pleasant joys therein I find."

But I discovered his equal the other day when visiting a sick friend in Outremont whose house adjoins a vacant lot, says the Montreal Herald. I found him sitting comfortably on the veranda overlooking that lot and studying it through a pair of field glasses.

He asked me: "How many kinds of plants would you suppose there is in that field?"

"About half a dozen," I replied.

"I have already found 77," he assured me, and went on to name them. Confinement to a veranda did not worry him much.

Scriptural Translations

Every year scholars are toiling to translate the Scriptures into more and still more dialects. Thousands are plodding all over the globe to put these translations in the hands of all peoples. In the interiors of distant continents, far up the Amazon valley, perhaps, or into darkest Africa, where the Bible has never been, explorers are tramping with their packs. Motor-cars are carrying the Bible across the desert from Damascus to Hagdad in 48 hours, a journey that was once a matter of six weeks, and by fastest camel post a trip of nine days.

Loosen Up That Cold With Musterole

Have Musterole handy when a cold starts. It has all the advantages of grandmother's mustard plaster WITHOUT the blister. You just apply it with the fingers. First you feel a warm tingle as the healing ointment penetrates the pores, then comes a soothing, cooling sensation and quick relief.

Made of pure oil of mustard and other simple ingredients, Musterole is recommended by many nurses and doctors. Try Musterole for bronchitis, sore throat, stiff neck, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, croup, asthma, neuritis, congestion, pains and aches of the back or joints, sore muscles, sprains, bruises, chilblains, frost-bitten feet, colds of the chest. It may prevent pneumonia and "flu."

To Mothers: Musterole is also made in milder form for infants, babies and small children. Ask for Children's Musterole. 35c and 65c, jars and tubes.

One Mother's Tribute to Daughter-in-Law

When I first saw my son Tyler's angelic manner under his wife's regime I held my breath, because in the old days Tyler in a hostile state of mind meant Tyler getting ready to break out in a new place.

But as time goes on, and the serenity remains unbroken, I repeat to myself that perfect line from the "Just So Story"—"My always was the Kangaroo as now we behold him"—a test that I recommended to all mothers who have seen their brats some gently tamed by well-selected wives.

Indeed, the longer I live the more ready I am to believe that a young man's wife may be better acquainted with his most current present day self than his mother can possibly be. My daughter-in-law sees in her husband a forceful man of affairs on whose judgment she implicitly relies. I respect his judgment, too, in a way, but I cannot help knowing that he is the same Tyler who, at the age of four, belted himself into a high fever one day because I would not let him lend a bloodhound in the parade when "Uncle Tom's Cabin" came to town.

Mothers view their sons with what psychologists might call an "associative fringe." We are handicapped by associated memories. We cannot estimate our sons exactly on their wives estimate them. They come upon us at a different stage—"A Maternal Philosopher" in the Atlantic Monthly.

MOTHERS AND THEIR CHILDREN

Must Enjoy Reading.

The problem of getting children to read is growing increasingly difficult. They are inclined to let the movies take the place of literature. Therefore, if you are going to get your children to read, remember that first of all they must enjoy reading. If they are bored by a book, no matter if it is a classic, do not insist on their reading it. It is better to put it away and substitute a well-written book with a more adventurous appeal. Even if you think a book should be read by a child, do not force it on him at the expense of causing him to dislike reading for himself.

Hill Goes on Trial On Liquor Charge

By United Press. BALTIMORE, Md., Nov. 10.—Congressman John Philip Hill today went on trial in the United States District Court here for the manufacture and possession of 2 1/2 per cent cider and wine and for maintaining a nuisance at his home by his alcoholic activities.

Hill, who was re-elected last week to carry the case to the Supreme Court to get a final ruling on the maximum alcoholic content permissible in home-made cider and wine, claims that if hard cider is taken away from the farmer the drys will lose their vote. If, however, 2 1/2 per cent cider is declared legal he will demand 2 1/2 per cent beer also.

Corn, Potato Yield Above Expectations

By United Press. HARRISBURG, Nov. 10.—Corn and potatoes yielded better than expected this year due to favorable weather conditions of the past month, according to a crop survey issued today by the State Department of Agriculture. The apple crop was reported considerably below average, however, while winter wheat seedlings were handicapped by lack of moisture. The tobacco crop was of good quality but the yield was reported below the average.

Pneumonic Plague May Be in Illinois

By United Press. MARION, Ill., Nov. 10.—Following the deaths of two women at Harist, a mining village near here, and serious illness of 12 persons, the State Board of Health today ordered samples of blood of the victims sent to Springfield for tests to determine whether pneumonic plague has appeared in this district.

The two women died Friday within nine hours after being taken sick and the others became ill the next day.

Grim Reaper

MRS. MARY A. NEZ. Mrs. Mary A. Nez, 74 years old, died at 2:35 o'clock Saturday afternoon at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. M. Fisher, at 214 Jefferson street. She had been ill since last November. The death began at her home in North Prospect street and she was removed to the daughter's home soon after. She had been able to go about most of the time at the home of Mrs. Fisher until Friday, October 31, since which time she had been bedfast. The illness was the second one. The previous November she was stricken. Up to that time she had been able to take care of her home, but the attack left her in a weakened condition from which she did not fully recover.

Mrs. Nez was the widow of John Y. Nez, who was killed in a Baltimore and Ohio wreck at Glenwood on February 8, 1903. He was the conductor of the train, a freight. Mrs. Nez was born at Everett, Bedford county, September 28, 1840, a daughter of John L. and Susan McGinnis Morlimer. She was married at Mount Pleasant, on July 5, 1876, by Rev. DeLong of the United Brethren Church. The family lived there for a number of years, moving then to Glenwood where it was located for eight months, coming from that place to Connelville in 1891, and she had lived at 303 North Prospect street from that time to the onset of her final illness. Mrs. Nez was a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church since coming to Connelville. Five children were born, of whom four are living. A daughter, Mrs. Carrie Myrtle Nez Cypher, died several years ago. Those living are: Mrs. J. M. Fisher, Alfred F. Nez of Glenesport, Charles J. and John L. Nez, members of the Connelville police force. A sister, Mrs. William Roland, lives at Brookvale. There are three grandchildren, Alfred and Sherlock Fisher and Mrs. Ora Williams, wife of Dr. Earl Williams, the last named of Youngstown, Ohio.

The funeral service will be Tuesday at 2 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Fisher, with Dr. Bennett W. Hutchinson officiating. Burial will be in Hill Grove Cemetery.

OLIVER C. BAIRD. Oliver Clark Baird, a well known resident, died at his home at Star Junction Sunday afternoon at 1 o'clock. He was 75 years old. Death was due to complication of diseases.

Mr. Baird is survived by his wife, Elizabeth Baird, and the following children: C. H. Baird Mrs. Martha King, Amanda King, Elaine and Fannie King, Star Junction; Mrs. Lillian McFadden, Johnstown; Elwood, Baird, McBride, Mich.; Mrs. Jane McFadden and Miss Winifred Baird, Pittsburgh; one sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Scott of Greensburg, also, survives.

Mr. Baird was an employee of the Washington Coal & Coke Company for 31 years in the capacity of a pumper in the mine. He was a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church of Star Junction.

The funeral service will be held Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home. Rev. Judson Jefferys of Scotland, assisted by Rev. J. A. Porgie of Star Junction, will have charge. Burial will be made in Mount Washington Cemetery.

MISS SARAH SMYTH. Miss Sarah Smyth, 70 years old, died Sunday morning at the home of her niece, Mrs. Anna Cunningham of Uniontown. She is survived by two brothers, D. J. Smyth of Hied and Robert B. Smyth of Smithfield, and one sister, Mrs. Mary McNally of Uniontown. She was a member of the West Leaning Presbyterian Church.

The funeral service will be held Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the Cunningham home, with Rev. E. A. Hord officiating. The interment will be made in the Laurel Hill Presbyterian Cemetery.

JOSEPH ROY MARTIN. Joseph Roy Martin, 12 years old, died at 2:46 o'clock Sunday afternoon at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Martin, 111 Madison avenue. Pneumonia, with which the lad had been ill for two weeks, caused death. He was born at Bresnock and was a student in the eighth grade. He would have been 13 years old on December 4. In addition to his parents he is survived by two brothers, Paul and Robert and one sister, Catherine, all at home. Funeral arrangements were to be completed today.

MRS. BRIDGET COOK. Mrs. Bridget Cook died at her home at Leasburg No. 1 at 5 o'clock this morning from infirmities of old age. Mrs. Cook was born in Ireland, the daughter of Patrick and Bridget Clancy Murphy. The body is at the home of a son, Michael Cook of Leasburg No. 1.

ADD MRS. BRIDGET COOK. Mrs. Cook was survived by two sons, Michael of Leasburg No. 1 and Christ of Warren, Ohio, 14 grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

The funeral will be Wednesday morning, with requiem high mass at St. Vincent de Paul Church at 9 o'clock. Burial will be in the church cemetery.

MRS. CATHERINE CALMAN. The funeral service for Mrs. Catherine Calman, who died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Martin Katriak of Perryopolis, Saturday at 11 o'clock, was held this morning in the St. John's Catholic Church at Perryopolis, with Rev. Rochak, pastor, officiating. Burial was made in the church cemetery.

Mrs. Calman was 76 years of age, at the time of her death that was attributed to a stroke of paralysis. She is survived by three sons and as many children of all ages printed on bottle. Mother! You must say "California" or you may get an imitation fig syrup.—Advertisement.

MRS. ANTHONY R. SOISSON. The funeral of Mrs. Louise Taylor Soloson, wife of Anthony R. Soloson, who died Friday of pneumonia, was held this morning from the home of a brother-in-law, A. E. Soloson of 401 Baldwin avenue.

Mrs. Soloson was 49 years of age at the time of her death. The pallbearers were Soloson Madigan, Elmer Soloson, Robert King, Albert Soloson, Harold Soloson and John Soloson, all cousins of Mr. Soloson. Burial was made in old St. Joseph cemetery.

Among the relatives here to attend the service were Mr. and Mrs. John Taylor and daughter, Marie, of Eden, Md.; Mr. and Mrs. Roy Soloson of Monacaen and Otto Soloson of Beaver.

FREDERICK WEBER. Frederick Weber, Sr., 79 years old, father of Mrs. Abram Pershing of Mount Pleasant, died last Friday night at his home in Leasburg, Md. He was a veteran of the Civil War.

Judge MacFarlane Holds Up 43 Liquor Cases in Pittsburgh

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 10.—Judge MacFarlane of common pleas court today refused to grant 13 injunctions sought to suspend operations of many saloons, cafes and cabarets in the Pittsburgh district.

District Attorney Gardner and others appeared in court requesting the places be closed on ground they are public nuisances but Judge MacFarlane said the matter involved personal property rights and he would not care to make a decision without consulting his colleagues.

Girl Found With Her Head Severed

EAST CHICAGO, Ill., Nov. 10.—The body of Florence Jandyn, aged 14, with her head cut off, was found by police in front of a manufacturing plant here today. Officers believed she was the victim of a murder.

A post-mortem examination revealed the girl had been assaulted. A razor was used in cutting the head off.

Held for Murder.

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 10.—J. W. Hank, 60, of Monongahela City, was ordered remanded to the county jail today on charge of murder in connection with the death of William Meahan, 26, of New Eagle, Washington county Meahan was run down and killed by Hank's automobile which sped on without stopping, police claim.

Infant Dies.

Antonio, six weeks old son of Frank and Mary Petko Marchand, died at the pueral home at Juniata Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Funeral service was held this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the home. Interment was made in St. Joseph's Cemetery in Connelville.

May Name New Ministers.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—New faces may be seen in American ambassadorial posts in England, France and Spain early next year. President Coolidge is considering a list of possible appointees for ministers and ambassadors to a dozen countries and it is understood there may be changes at London, Paris and Madrid.

Since Skin Tone Capsules Relieved Bad Case Of Stomach Trouble He Feels 100% Better

Never Felt So Good in 25 Years.

Rheumatism, Backache and Constipation Relieved. Appetite Now Much Better—Gains 10 lbs. in Weight.

So many victims of stomach trouble have found relief in Skin Tone Capsules, the new remedy that is now being introduced at the Connelville Drug Co., that hardly a day passes that there is not some one who gladly tells of the wonderful results obtained by this new remedy. Stomach trouble attacks the rich and poor alike, but thousands of folks in Connelville have failed to pay attention to this most common ailment. Usually the first symptoms are one or more of the following complaints, indigestion, gassy stomach, sourness, headaches, dizzy spells, spots before the eyes, a stale taste in the mouth, rheumatism, constipation, backache, or that tired, listless (lary) feeling.

Mr. A. L. Somers, 1526 Atlantic Ave., Mahoningtown, Pa., says: "Since taking Skin Tone Capsules I sleep better, eat good and feel better than I have in the past 25 years. This medicine has benefited me in every way and I wouldn't take $100 for the good it has done me. Rheumatism which I know is just a symptom of bad blood which is caused by stomach neglect, used to keep me crippled all the time, could just about hobble me every time I bent over. Now I am getting around like a young fellow again. Skin Tone Capsules also regulated my bowels and helped my appetite. I can feel myself getting stronger every day and I weigh exactly 10 lbs. more than when I started taking Skin Tone Capsules. If anybody wants to know what this great tonic will do for them just send them to me." Mr. Somers will be glad to tell any sufferer whether or not he thinks Skin Tone Capsules will help them if they will call on him at the Connelville Drug Co. There is no obligation to purchase unless you are satisfied it will help you.

Remember that every druggist in America is authorized to refund the purchase price to any dissatisfied user.—Advertisement.

ROBERT DULA
After an absence from New York of two years, Robert Dula, Jr., son of an immensely wealthy New York family, was arrested and held in $25,000 bail when his return in a separation suit brought by his wife, Miss Hiram Dula, Mrs. Dula asks the famous attorney out to pay her $25,000 a month alimony and $10,000 attorney's fees. Another suit for $25,000 for alleged alienation of affection is pending against his father.

SAVING PEOPLE'S MONEY WILL BE AN AIM OF COOLIDGE

clerks. It seems to be admitted on all sides that the clerks are underpaid but the question that has to be solved is from what source the increased revenue is to be obtained—from increased rates on parcel post or second class matter or a revision of all postal rates.

The postal service is not as efficient as the American people would like to have it. Excessive economies in the last few years, especially in the railway mail service, have interfered with efficiency. It sometimes takes two days to get mail from New York to Washington—a five-hour run on the railroads. Airplane mail is assisting materially in transcending the service but the demand is growing for better mail service on the short distance runs.

Government finances are in splendid shape. The new tax law has not brought a deficit but a surplus. Will Congress give the American people the benefit of lower taxes or will it insist on spending the surplus? President Coolidge's leadership on this issue will be revealed in the message now being prepared for the December session of Congress. Mr. Coolidge promised earlier in the year to continue his efforts for tax revision. It is unlikely that he will forget. There are some glaring inequities in the present law. The President did not feel justified in vetoing the whole law to secure a revision of any portion of it. A campaign was waged and he couldn't imperil a law relied by a veto. But now the situation has changed. Even with a Congress in which the LaFollette radicals hold the balance of power for they remain in office until next March, the President can, if he chooses, present a measure for amendment of the present act and some of the insurgent Republicans may not be so anxious to oppose Mr. Coolidge as they were several months ago. The election returns may have had a salutary effect on those who would obstruct merely for individual or partisan advantage.

With reference to the present tax law, there will be some interesting data sought from the Treasury as to the productivity of the new rates. It would not be surprising to find that the real reason for the surplus is that the lower rates at all, but the enforcement of the law. Several new administrative provisions were inserted by the Treasury in the last law based upon experience with evasions and avoidance. Many loopholes have been plugged. Even had the old 1923 rates remained on the statute books there would have been increased revenues due to improved administration.

There is also the improvement in business conditions to be taken into account. Unquestionably there will be another drive for tax revision and economy in government expenditure. It's the biggest issue of the moment next to an agricultural program and President Coolidge will have something to say on both when he sends his message to Congress and presents the budget for the next fiscal year.

Dunbar Township High Notes

Dunbar Township High School students carried out the election on Tuesday as did the old politicians. A straw vote gave Coolidge 172 votes, LaFollette 111 and Davis 34. A program was carried out in chapel. The three candidates were mimicked while other persons conducted their political campaigns for them. Leslie Shallenberger emulated President Coolidge while Miss Catherine Cameron spoke in behalf of the president. John Bender represented John W. Davis, Democratic candidate, while Miss Pauline Arnold spoke in his behalf. John Blakely spoke for Robert M. LaFollette, socialist and labor nominee, who was mimicked by William Hudkins.

Prof. Elton H. Hickman, teacher of upper English classes, was in charge of the program. Much praise is due the teacher for his excellent judgment in selecting students to characterize the presidential candidates. The trio bore resemblances to their "doubles."

The All-Select Eight of the glee club rehearsed Thursday afternoon under the personal direction of Miss Mabel H. Wilt, director.

The Senior class selected its class ring Friday.

The school photographer, Lewis Schoelick, was busy during the past two weeks, "mugging" the three classes and the extra-curricular activity participants.

The school officials are completing a program that will be carried out at the high school on Armistice Day next Tuesday, November 11. Classes will be in session during the morning while the afternoon will be devoted to the program.

The school officials received perfect attendance certificates last week from the Department of Public Instruction of Harrisburg and distributed them on Wednesday in chapel exercises. The recipients of the certificates were neither tardy nor late during the school year ending June 1924. They are: Freshmen—Walter Bailey, Emma Bryner, Ella Bryce, Eleanor Chippeaux, Gertrude Eberhart, Jesse Grady, John Horvath, Harry McDonald, Lillian Morgan, Harry Suber, Frances Shallenberger, Phoebe Strickler, Thomas Tennilla, Evelyn Worthington, sophomore—Frances Blinn, William Blakely, Susan Fedorko, Othmar Hines, Marie Hockmuth, Kenneth McClintock, Myron Pettassovich and Earl Wingrove, juniors—Mary Edwards, Ora Gankill, Thelma Kelly and Catherine Mahoney, seniors—Lloyd Christie, Mary Coffman, Mary Belle Cochran, Ella Cropp, Henry Rittenberger and Viola Secosky. (Those whose names are followed by an asterisk are in line for seals that are given for perfect attendance for four years.)

The elimination reading contest is under way at the high school. Those who took part were: Madeline Meyers, Pauline Arnold, Margaret Lehnman, Marie Seibert, Mary Adams, Ruth Adams, Gladys Ansell, Hazel Beale, Gladys Brown, Ethel Mae Collins, Edna Dills, Mary Emerson, Audrey Hamilton, Stella McGowan, Violet Owade, Mary Belle Stannin.

Grace Strickler, Margaret Vargo, Marguerite Arnold, Emma Bryner, John A. Bradley, Anna Brimmoek, Joseph Karafis, Harold Ober, Anna Belle Bowers, Mary Solfranko, Harry Soxman, Bertha Binko, Helene Lockstein, Anna Barbolina, Grace Clark, Loretta Flenniken, Robert Gallagher, Sara Haas, Ruth Luckey, Helen Kuttner, Priscilla Quidland, Marie Orr, Nellie Avery and Priscilla Pichard.

Hot on the press for the second time came the Sentinel.

Warm Current Exists, No Matter How Cooled

It was with some consternation that one read in the newspapers that the gulf stream had been proved a myth. If one of the sacred scientific trinity had died, what was to become of the others—the nebular hypothesis and the law of gravitation?

A closer reading, however, was reassuring, remarks the New York Evening Mail. It appears that M. Le Danole, a French savant, asserts that there is no such thing as a gulf stream. What is called by this name is a combination of ocean tides.

There are, he says, two kinds of water in the North Atlantic, warm and cold. The warm moves in a northward current to some undetermined point and turns backward again. The fluctuations, however, are tidal.

One has a vague memory of reading something very like that in the physical geography book about twenty years ago. Apparently the phenomena exist, whether one explains them by the term gulf stream or as ocean tides. That which we call a gulf stream by another name will smell as sweet to migratory herring and sardine and, happily, one can still paraphrase "Romeo and Juliet" regardless of whether Bacon or Shakespeare wrote it. And the warm Atlantic current still saves Europe from a return to the glacial period regardless of whether one accepts the nomenclature of Franklin or that of M. Le Danole.

Navajo Brave Faces From Mother-in-Law

The superstitious of the Navajos are so many and so varied that life for them would be a constant burden if they observed them as carefully as they are supposed to. It is probable that the great American mother-in-law myth, which represents all mother-in-laws as being very bad medicine, had its origin in the beliefs of the Navajos, for very terrible things are supposed to happen to any Navajo man who is so unfortunate as to meet his mother-in-law face to face, writes Kenneth L. Roberts in the Saturday Evening Post.

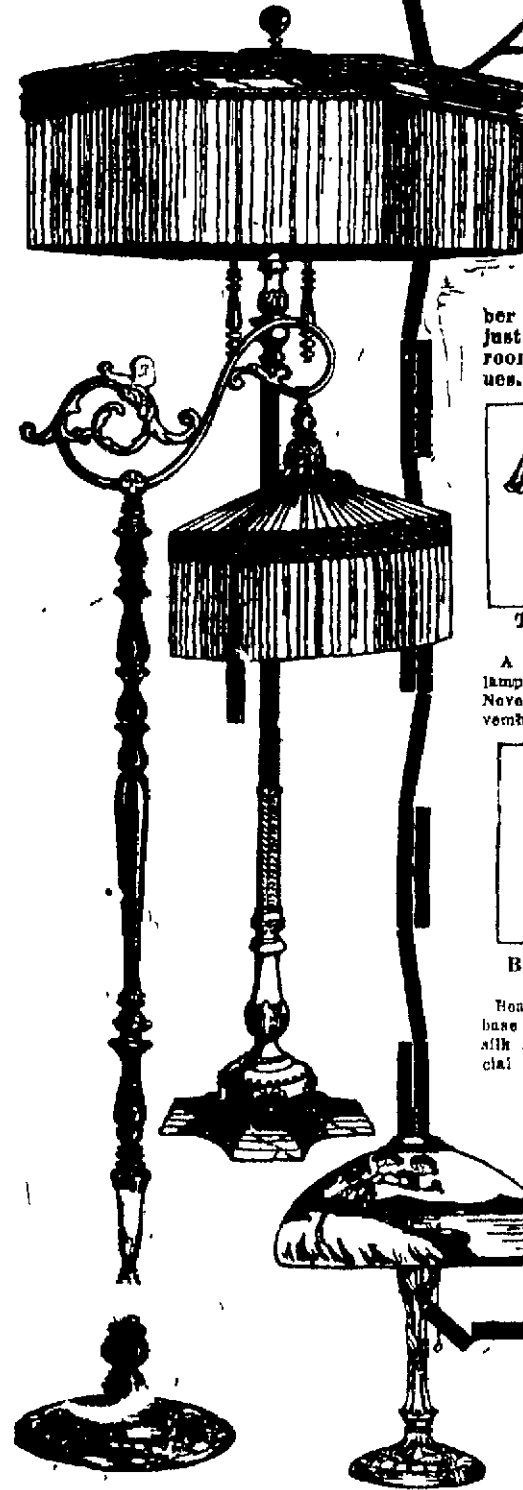

When the Navajos are pressed to reveal the hideous calamities that would befall them in the event of meeting their mother-in-law, they move uneasily from foot to foot and evade the issue. It is horrible to talk about, but it is obvious that meeting a mother-in-law in Navajo circles is the very apex of tough luck.

A Navajo will go to any length to avoid burying a dead man. It is very bad medicine to kill or skin a bear. His superstition, however, has never led him to consider as bad medicine the stealing of fascinating little odds and ends from the white man any more than the white man in years gone by considered that he was doing any particular wrong when he sold Navajo women and children into slavery stole Navajo land and killed Navajo sheep.

Intelligent Reading
If the books which you read are your own, mark with a pen or pencil the most considerable things in them which you most desire to remember. Then you may read that book the second time over with half the trouble, by your eye running over the paragraphs which your pencils have noted. It is but a very weak objection against this practice to say "I shall spoil my book." For I persuade myself that you did not buy it as a bookkeeper, to sell it again for gain but as a scholar to improve your mind by it and if the mind be improved, your advantage is abundant though your book yields less money to your executors.

When Pillory Was Used
The use of the pillory for the punishment of evil doers was long abolished in England during comparatively recent times and was in active operation in June 1837. This peculiar form of punishment has a venerable history and was known before the conquest in the form of an iron collar of torture called the stretch neck. The pillory was usually devoted to fraudulent dealers in shams, sham gold rings or counterfeiters of papal bulls until Star Chamber's time made it a political weapon whereby many a noble heart was tried and tempered.

At the Theatres

The Paramount

"BIG FISH," showing today and tomorrow at the Paramount, is a tremendous story of life in a giant pine country. William Desmond is seen in the stellar role.

The cast supporting Desmond is especially strong and including Olive Hasbrouck, Betty Francisco, Lydia Yeaman, Titus, Ivar McFadden and Albert J. Smith. William Craft directed the filming of the story.

Desmond is commendable in his portrayal of the character of a clean-cut young executive of a big lumber company who takes charge of a company facing the dislike of the workers, who think that he cheated the former owner of the company to a point where he committed suicide.

Miss Hasbrouck "discovered" in "Mr. Ridgeway of Montana," a few months ago, plays the role of a tomboy heroine, a barefoot forest wail in overalls. She has a genuine appeal and treats her role sympathetically.

The story is replete with thrills from the very moment that Desmond, in the role of Walter Sundry, new lumber king, arrives at his newly acquired properties to supervise them personally. He is met with resistance, not only by a rival lumber outfit, but also by his own men who have a falsely acquired notion that he is responsible for the death of the previous owner.

Wednesday and Thursday Virginia Valli will be seen in "The Signal Tower."

The Soisson

"GIRL, SHY"—Which opened today at the Soisson for a four-day attraction—presents Harold Lloyd in one of the biggest comedy features in which he has ever appeared.

For every Lloyd comedy is distinctive from all angles and in all respects except one, and that's laughter. It seems that in each one you find laughs coming more and more rapidly than in the preceding one. And "Girl Shy" is no exception. While Lloyd has successfully undertaken one of the most novel and difficult characterizations he has ever attempted, it is entirely different from any of his predecessors except for the fact that it is even funnier than the other types he has portrayed. Truly this young man with the horn rimmed glasses can lay claim to the title of being America's greatest comedian.

Little Jobyna Ralston, who made such a hit in the last Lloyd Pathé comedy, "Why Worry?" is again seen playing opposite Harold, and she gives an excellent account of herself in a rather difficult part. Richard Daniels, the uncle of freckle-faced "Mickey," of "Our Gang" fame, is cast as Lloyd's uncle, and helps to win a lot of sympathy for the star. Carlton Griffin completes the cast in the role of a wealthy young idler.

The Orpheum

"MEN," featuring Pola Negri, the popular Paramount star, is the feature picture today, Tuesday and Wednesday at the Orpheum.

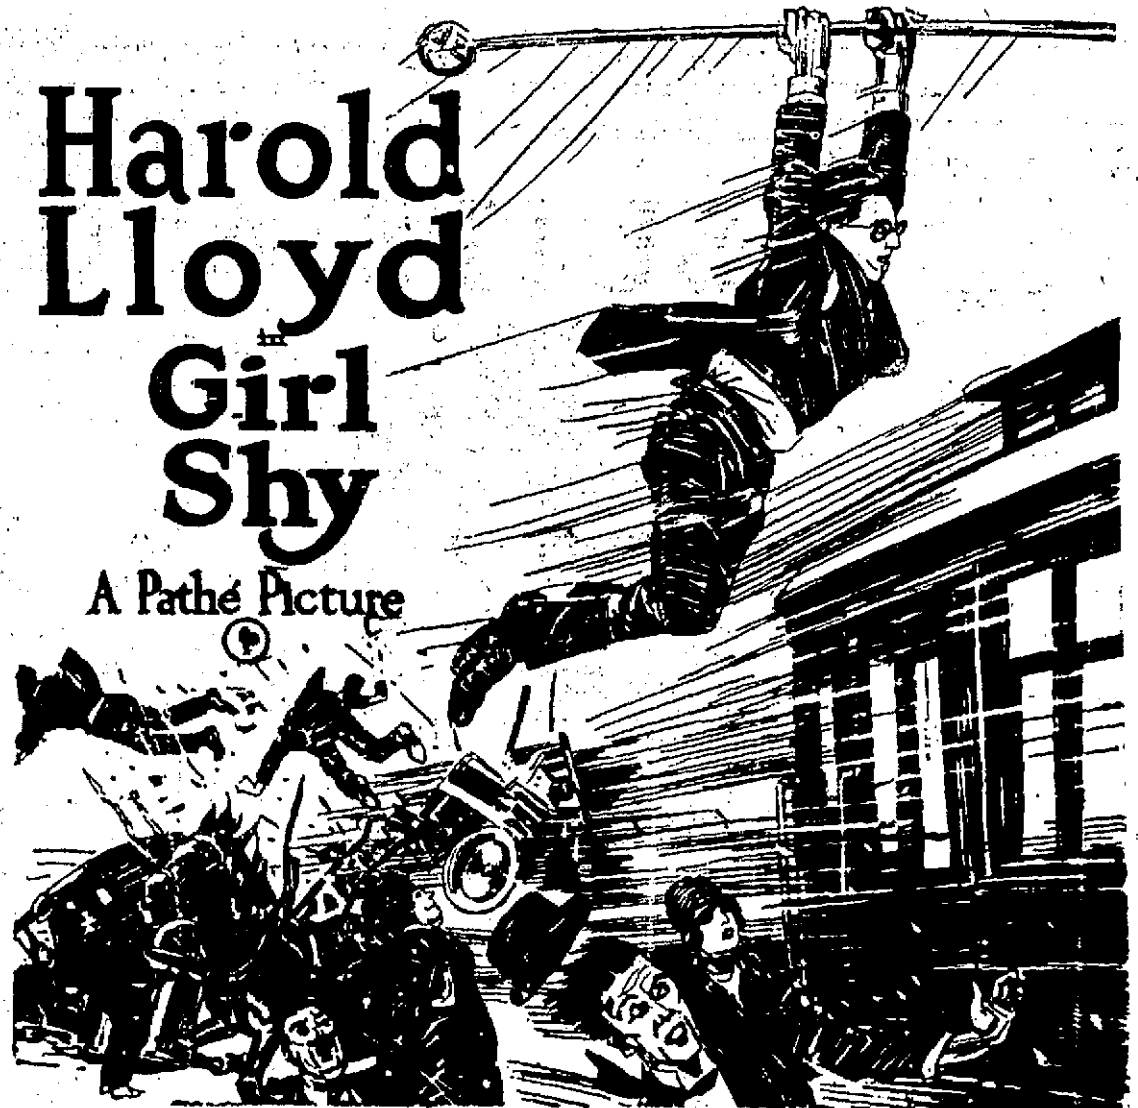

Directed by the Russian director as his first American made picture for Paramount, "Men" contains the story of the amazing adventures of a French girl, "Cleo," who begins life as a waitress in a cheap wine shop and rises to fame as a dancer in Paris.

The Arcade

Beginning a week's engagement at the Arcade Theatre today will be Hal Ring's Quaker Village Girls. The opening presentation will be The Girl in the Bottle. This is an original comedy with thrilling tunes and sparkling dances in a setting of splendid scenery further enhanced by beautiful costumes and a dancing chorus of pretty girls. Vaudeville specialties by The Quaker Trio, Kollie Sisters, Hal and Eva Ring, Johnny Desmond and Jack McCann, will be introduced during the action of the play. Mr. Ring features his chorus as the most youthful and peppiest in miniature musical comedy. On the screen will be shown another interesting episode of the doings of the Gumps, Andy and Min. The title of this latest picture is "What's the Use." It is full of laughs from beginning to end. The usual ladies' matinee at the Arcade Theatre this week. There will be a complete change of program Wednesday.

South Brownsville High to Be Here Tuesday Afternoon

The South Brownsville High School football team will play here tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock. The game will be at Fayette Field, where the team will be by no means a new one. Connelville High will attempt to break its losing streak. Without a victory this season, and badly disappointed over the showing.

at Monessen, the Cokers will make a determined drive against South Brownsville to win themselves. The game will be by no means a new one. Connelville High will attempt to break its losing streak. Without a victory this season, and badly disappointed over the showing.

Cokers, With Breaks Against Them, Go Down Before Assault Of Monessen; Score Is 37-6

Coach Got Away to Poor Start and Second Half Is a Nightmare.

CHOPPERING IS STAR

Nothing anything but brilliant football, with every break against them, the Connelville High School got a beating at the hands of Monessen Saturday afternoon that disappointed several hundreds of local persons present and by a score that was far beyond the wildest dreams of the home team. The final score was 37-6.

The first score came after an exchange of punts. Monessen rushed the ball to Connelville's six yard line and then took it over on a cross-play. The attempt at goal failed. The Cokers made some big gains and punted. Monessen tried a place kick. It was blocked and the Black and White squad recovered. Monessen punted and the quarter ended with the ball in Connelville's possession.

Trump punted and Monessen carried the ball to within an inch of the Coker goal line. Trump endeavored to punt out but the kick was blocked and Monessen recovered for a touchdown. The try for point failed.

Before the quarter ended the Cokers threatened, carrying the ball rapidly down the field. They also were stopped within an inch of getting the pigskin across and Monessen punted away out. The half ended.

In the second half the Cokers scored first. Holding Monessen for downs the locals plugged into the line for three successive first downs. The ball was on Monessen's eighty-yard line. Trump took it through the line of scrimmage and fumbled. The ball rolled across the goal line and then the Cokers got their only break. "Red" (Donnell) was in position to fall on it. The kick for goal failed.

Soon afterwards Monessen again scored. Trump's punt was blocked. Frank slapped it with his hand, knocking it over the goal line and kept it on it for a touchdown. The next touchdown came rapidly. With the Cokers upset by the sudden turn of events Monessen opened a dazzling attack that further disconcerted them and as a result the fourth score was made.

The Cokers were in possession of the ball then and after gaining numerous yards were forced to punt without threatening the goal. Monessen returned the kick and Connelville at once registered a first down. The home team intercepted a Coker pass, punted and recovered when Connelville fumbled. From that point it was easy to score.

The last touchdown came with only a few minutes left to play. Trump had the ball and was ready to throw a forward pass. A Monessenite struck his arm, the ball flew into the arms of another Black and White back and he was off with a clear field ahead of him. The kick for point was good, being the only successful one of a half season tried.

Vanderbilt Will Meet Scottsdale Bowlers Tonight

The Vanderbilt All-Star dockets bowling team will journey to Scottsdale this evening where it will clash with the star contingent of that place. Having difficulty in arranging games with local surrounding quintets, the Tough Valley team is forced to widen its scope. The Mill Towners will be out for their first victory, according to word from that place. The Vanderbilt team has copied two from Perryopolis, three from the Dickinson Run ship track team, while losing one to Perryopolis and two to Connelville.

Greensburg High Beats Harrisburg

GREENSBURG, Nov. 10.—Greensburg High outclassed Harrisburg last at the Capital City Saturday, winning by a score of 8-0. Greensburg fans invaded Harrisburg 3,000 strong, according to estimates at the Westmoreland capital. A special train carried 700 and a band. The others went by automobile. Paid attendance at the game was 9,000.

Married Football Star Father of Three

It has just been revealed that Edgar Reed, star fullback on the Rutgers College team of New Brunswick, N. J., is twenty-nine years old, married, and the father of three children. He was an end on Walter Camp's All-American team last year. Reed, whose home is in Marshall, Mich., played on Rutgers in 1914 and then married Miss Marie in 1915 and then married Miss Marie in 1915 and then married Miss Marie in 1915.

MONESSEN AMAZED BY CONNELLSVILLE TRANSPORT TRAIN

Monessen, the steel city, was awed and amazed when the long procession of Coker automobiles, composing the great caravan carrying hundreds of school rooters, swooped down on that community Saturday afternoon. The seemingly endless string of automobiles filed into the spacious park without any delay. Ticket collectors met the machines at the city limits and cars did not have to pause at the gates.

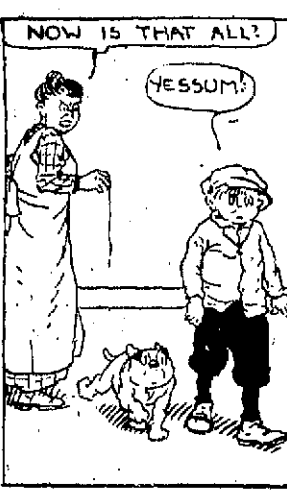

The "caravan" will go down in Connelville history. It was something of the kind never before attempted and it went across without a hitch. Credit goes to J. W. McClaren and his committee of Rotary boys and Riks. "Mac" himself had the biggest job, marshalling the many car owners and seeing to it that not a single kid who had purchased a ticket was left at home.

The loading was done with "business and dispatch" at the High School building and the big string moved off on time. At the park Mr. McClaren saw to it that every car had its original load before it left and the biggest feat of transportation by automobile in Western Pennsylvania had been successful.

Attorney R. S. Matthews, president of the Board of Education, was peace-maker and he saw to it that the run did not develop into a race.

Courteous treatment was extended by Monessen folks and there was an

50 CENTS

There's no doubt about it—Ma Jong is the most interesting game that Americans have ever played. It is the craze of the hour but it has come to stay. Many people believe it will replace Bridge and other card games.

This is a Reduced Reproduction of Box—Actual Size 12x5½x1. The Cover is Handsomely Printed in Gold on Black Embossed Paper, Which Has the Appearance of Leather.

Secure Your Game and Learn To Play—It's Fascinating!

When everybody is forming Ma Jong clubs, giving Ma Jong parties, playing Ma Jong and talking Ma Jong, you must join in. You must know how to play and have a set so that you may entertain your friends when they drop in for an afternoon or evening. It is more fascinating than radio and less expensive than the movies.

The set we are offering is exactly the same as the expensive sets, except that it is made of durable cardboards instead of ivory. The fine engraving on the high priced sets add nothing to the playing value, and some of the best players in the city will soon develop by using this 50c set of ours.

You'll have as much fun with this set, and be-

It Is Not Hard to Play

The two popular fallacies about the game is that it is expensive to purchase and difficult to play. By introducing this 50c set, we have brought the game within the reach of everyone, thereby eliminating the objection of high cost, while the book of directions which accompanies our game makes the rules clear and the game ready to master.

Ask the People Who Play;

they will tell you that it requires no special talent to play—no technical skill is needed. The people who play will tell you, too, how fascinating it is to match the playing pieces to make three or four of a kind or three of a sequence, how satisfying it is to "pung" a piece and to win the game.

Understand What People Mean

when they talk of the "loose tiles," and the "East Wind," "forming and opening the wall," "chowing," and the few other terms of the game.

There is one thing sure—if other people can play it, you can—and all you need to do in order to become an expert is to buy and use this 50c set we are now offering.

absence of "color grabbing," so often indulged in at the expense of visiting fans.

Extra police precautions were taken to insure the safety of the Cokers and the team had a strong behind bigger than many which attended games at Fayette Field. Between halves, "Drum Major" Adrian, in high-topped hat, swallow tailed coat, with a huge band of Orange and Black ribbon across his broad chest, led a parade around the grounds to the music of Oswald's Elk Band. Three mounted officers kept the "route" cleared.

The only thing lacking to make the whole thing a complete success was a Connelville victory.

S. CONNELLSVILLE WINS ANOTHER; IS EVERSON THIS TIME

The South Connelville Independent maintained their standard on Saturday by defeating the strong Everson Athletics at May's Field, 7-0.

The neighborhood independent, showing considerable speed, got the lone touchdown in the second quarter.

As the first period ended G. Soisson recovered Everson's fumble. Burkhardt went through right tackle for five yards and H. Adams made five more at left and for a first down. Lee sailed around the same corner for two more and H. Adams breezed through right tackle for nine, making another first down. Francis smashed the same hole for eight yards and Burkhardt plunged to the four yard line. H. Adams fumbled and Burkhardt recovered on the one yard line. Adams was given another opportunity and he slipped across the line, going through right tackle.

The extra point was good on a pass from Soisson to Francis.

From then on no more scores were made. Burkhardt, in the third quarter, carried the ball to within one foot of the goal but H. Adams fumbled and Everson recovered. The greater part of the game was played in Everson territory.

Next Saturday afternoon the Rilliton A. C. of Irwin will play. The visiting outfit is one which has lost only a single game out of seven starts.

The line-up:

"Championship" Game Ends in Argument

Fayette county's "championship" game was not completed Saturday, when German Township refused to accept the decision of the game officials in a game with South Brownsville. The decision gave German Township a safety or a touchdown while they claimed a touchdown. South Brownsville according to the referee won the game, 8-2.

Grid Glitches At Trotter.

The Dunbar record stands with four defeats and three victories. A 500 mark can be obtained by defeating German Township next Friday.

Dunbar's grid mentor made eleven substitutions, giving some of the "subs" a chance to get into a battle.

Bill Blakely, Dunbar's left end, headed for a berth on the county all-scholastic football team. He is one of the best players in the county and stands for clean sportsmanship. His "kid" brother on the other side of the line, is rounding out in his footsteps.

"Tootle" Brown, the 88-pound quarterback of the Red and Black, was given a big ovation by the fans when he went in for Sweeney in the last quarter. "Tootle" led Dunbar to its first victory of the season against Hurst, when he scored the first touchdown of the year.

Smith was the first to make two touchdowns on the Dunbar team this season. Both came yesterday. Brown, McHaltick, Sweeney and John Blakely each have one to their credit.

"Pete" Thaw's playing is prize-worthy and the opponents hold report for the left tackle. Between halves, the coach of North Union accosted the team for not stopping him as he was breaking up numerous plays. "Yes, I guess you're right coach," one of the players said, "but when German Township refused to stop that steam roller. Three of us tried to hit him, and we were all knocked cold for a couple minutes."

North Union's fighting spirit prevailed during the entire game. Even though fighting a losing battle, the visitors put up a good account.

The Dunbarites are looking forward to the annual game with Connelville on Thanksgiving Day. With the team showing much promise and ability, the booster of the team are confident of giving the Cokers an upset.

Four nights of hard scrimmaging this week is in store for the grid team. The squad will be in the best of condition when it tackles the strong German Township squad on Friday. The McClellandtown contingent boasts of one of the county's best football teams. The Germanites upset Redskins.

Close to 1,000 fans bade the team farewell on home soil in the battle. The same crowd, besides an additional thousand will crowd into Fayette Field on Thanksgiving to bid them goodbye for the season.

Production of Gasoline Reaches Its Highest Point
The daily average production of gasoline in the United States for the first time in the history of the industry reached the 25,000,000 gallon mark for in the month of September, states the Department of the Interior through the Bureau of Mines. Because in September being a shorter month, however, the total gasoline output 750,000,000 gallons was 7,000,000 gallons below that for August. The daily production rate for September represents in the past over the August fully production rate of 8,000,000 gallons of 25.4 per cent and an increase of 20 per cent over the daily average of September 1929. Owing principally to the warlike demand for gasoline, the domestic demand in September being a shorter month, however, the high record consumption figure attained in August. Offsetting this shows a decrease in demand.

5,351 Utility Companies Listed in Pennsylvania

Byers Furnace Resumes.
The blast furnace of the A. M. Byers Company at Youngstown has resumed operation. demand was a continuation of foreign demand expressed in exports at over 100,000,000 gallons which caused a reduction in stocks amounting to 50,000,000 gallons. Stocks of gasoline on hand at refineries October 1 stood at 1,100,000,000 gallons, representing 51 days' supply. At the present rate of domestic demand this compares with 16 days' supply on hand October 1 of 1930.

Fatality Rate In Coal Mines Above Average

Accidents at coal mines in the United States in September resulted in the death of 136 men according to reports furnished by state mine inspectors to the Department of the Interior through the Bureau of Mines. The number of fatalities reported included 44 deaths in an explosion at Sublet, Wyoming on September 16 and five deaths in an explosion at Blair, Utah on September 21.
As the output of coal in September was 48,621,000 tons the fatality rate for the month was 3.83 per million tons mined as compared with 2.13 in September last year during which month no large disasters occurred and in average rate of 3.60 for September during the ten year period 1914-1923. For bituminous mines alone the reports showed 175 lives lost and a fatality rate of 7.83 per million tons as compared with a rate of 2.70 for September last year and a ten-year average rate of 1.90 for September. For anthracite mines alone the number of fatalities in September was 29 and the fatality rate 3.82 as compared with 6.96 for September last year and a ten-year average rate of 5.57 for September.
Reports submitted to the Bureau of Mines covering the first nine months of 1931 show a total of 1,321 lives lost in accidents at coal mines as compared with 1,912 in the corresponding months of last year. The fatality rate for 1931 to the end of September stands at 1.71 per million tons as compared with 1.49 for the same period last year. For bituminous mines alone the average rate in 1931 for nine months was 1.71 as against 1.59 in 1930. For anthracite mines alone the nine month average rate was 5.11 as compared with 4.85.
The two explosions in September brought the total number of fatalities in 1931 to nine. The fatality rate for 1931 to the end of September stands at 1.71 per million tons as compared with 1.49 for the same period last year. For bituminous mines alone the average rate in 1931 for nine months was 1.71 as against 1.59 in 1930. For anthracite mines alone the nine month average rate was 5.11 as compared with 4.85.

Booster "Taken Down"
On a football field a man with a loud voice was boasting to a party of admiring youngsters of the doughty deeds he had done on the football field in days gone by. Suddenly he turned his attention to the hand.
"Ah," he observed, "those fellows play decently, but they've fallen off terribly since I was a member of the band."
What? ejaculated one of his hearers. "You played with that lot?"
"Certainly," was the reply, "I was with them for years."
The crowd roared and the boastful man hastily retired on learning that the band in question was composed of harmless inmates of the local lunatic asylum.—Birmingham Post-Herald.

SCOTSDALE LEGION POST HOLDS ANNUAL MEMORIAL SERVICE

Rev. R. C. Betts of Latrobe Speaker at Mass Meeting at Strand Theatre.

CELEBRATION TOMORROW

Special to The Courier.
SCOTSDALE, Nov. 10.—The annual memorial service of the Thomas A. Leavelly Post of the American Legion was held yesterday afternoon at the Strand Theatre here, with excellent attendance. The following program was given:

Selection by the orchestra: "Star-Spangled Banner" by the audience; invocation, Chaplain C. L. Wagener; selection by quartet composed of J. A. Vallance, Roger Vallance, L. Porter and W. Steelsmith: "The Voice Beyond"; Grace Jarrett: roll call of dead; Adjutant William Miller, assisted by Jane McWilliams and Meredith Brooks, who laid poppies on an improvised grave on the stage; memorial address, Rev. R. C. Betts, pastor of the United Presbyterian Church at Latrobe, now chaplain of the 98th Reserve Corps and during the war chaplain of the 56th Engineers.

The speaker was introduced by C. L. Wagener. It is a most beautiful custom that Scottdale Post has established in holding its memorial service the Sunday preceding Armistice Day, since it was a celebration of the price of glory, and Armistice Day is a glorious celebration. He emphasized the need that "we carry on in time of peace as we carry on in time of war. We need to be mindful of the boys of '61 to '65, and also of those who made the supreme sacrifice, he said.

J. Harvey Luker was the only Civil War veteran present. He was the guest of the Legion.

After the address there was a selection by the quartet; taps by Post Bugler Walter Edge and benediction by Rev. Betts.

Since last Armistice Day six men have died. They are Danny Gatrachin, James Dewey O'Hara, Anthony Lavina-wski, Edwin Paul Mackey, Russell MacBeth and former Post Commander Percy Finch.

On Tuesday morning the annual Armistice Day celebration will be held by the American Legion. There will be a parade that will form at Loucks Park at 10 o'clock. The parade will be in two divisions. At the conclusion of the procession will go to the school grounds where a cannon, known as the Knapp Battery cannon, will be presented to the people as a memorial of the veterans of the Civil War. The gun was in service at the battle of Gettysburg. It has been painted and cleaned and at the exercises Tuesday morning will be mounted.

Music will be furnished by the Scottdale Military Band. C. L. Wagener will make the presentation speech.

This evening the Legion will hold its annual election, smoker and athletic program.

Students Give Recital.

The piano and violin pupils of Miss Margaret Krichbaum gave a very pleasing recital on Saturday evening at the home of Miss Krichbaum. Those who took part on the program were William Danneker, Sera and Robert McDowell, Grace Anderson, Irma and Frank Jefferys, Margaret Kutz, Jean and Dorothy Fox, Charles Gordon, John Hawthorne, Howard Matthews, Nola, Darline, Virginia Loucks, Ada Catherine Miller, Evelyn Riley, Ruth Fortney, Carolyn Gillingham, Kyle Work and Della Hough.

Miss Geneva Karr gave several selections on the piano and accordion, and Miss Krichbaum gave a piano selection and a violin selection, accompanied by Miss Karr. Lunch was served at the close of the program.

W. C. T. U. News.

The W. C. T. U. will meet at the home of Mrs. Ralph Steiner in Market street Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock. A playlet will be presented in the interest of medical temperance.

At Evangelical Church.

Rev. C. M. Funk of Freedom occupied the pulpit at the Evangelical church here and at Pennsylvania yesterday. Rev. Kimmel, the pastor, is conducting revival services at Freedom.

Missionary Meeting.

The Young Ladies' Missionary Society of the Lutheran Church was entertained on Friday evening at the home of Mrs. T. H. Gibson.

Class Entertained.

Miss Pauline Steiner entertained her Sunday school class at her home in Fourth avenue, November 6. Amusements appropriate to Halloween were indulged in, and later in the evening refreshments were served. A color scheme of orange and black predominated.

Personal Mention.

Mrs. Jesse Reed O'Brien, who spent several months at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Reed, left Friday for her home in the Philippines.

"To Walk Spanish"

To make a person "walk Spanish" is to make him come up to time, or to make him act under compulsion. It refers to the old sport among boys in which one boy strikes another by the collar and the seat of the trousers and forces him along on tiptoe. Hence, by extension, it means to walk gingerly. Apparently the expression originally referred to the manner in which the Spanish pirates used to handle their prisoners while dragging them out on the plank.—Ex-12222

On Don't Get Discouraged

LIKE SOLES WASHIN' UP AT TH' HORSE FOUNTAIN.

It is indeed doubtful if there is among all the life stories of those who have succeeded again, staggeringly old a career that even approaches that of the Soles. The Soles started out in life with three serious handicaps. He was an only child, his father was a great, an' he had a fine tenor voice. While his mother owned him an' saw it that he had a good an' warm heart, he was allowed free run an' spent his habit forming years of his life loafin' around th' O. K. livery barn. For while his services as a six-horse driver was in fair demand, but th' band wagon got out o' repair an' was finally chucked altogether. When young Soles finally felt th' urge o' better things he found himself invited for many o' th' callin' o' life. He took up law o' twenty-two an' started t' run for office. He was a candidate for county treasurer, promisin' that if elected he'd let his assistant run th' office. He tried for th' county treasurer's office, three times in spite o' ever' discouragement. Then he aspirin' th' office o' county assessor, bringin' out his middle name, Purvisance, which was his mother's maiden name. Even this piece o' strategy failed him, an' he was snowed under. Then he took up insurance sellin' an' went after th' nomination for constable, promisin' t' treat ever'body alike if he should win at th' polls. Another failure was added t' his belt, but he never once lost hope, or vowed that he'd vent through with politics. He tried t' sell nursery stock for a spell, but th' employment was unsuited t' his temperament. He took a post-graduate course in free surgery, but never practiced. Then th' Roosevelt panic came along an' his future lay overthin'g. This blow only seemed t' nerve him an' he struck out with renewed vigor, an' took in a free excursion t' th' Yukon apple country in Washington. Nothin' was heard o' him for several years. Finally he came home one day with a carload o' western horses an' opened a studio for th' voice. But he was several years ahead o' his time an' th' studio caused little stir. His mother an' father had, in th' meantime, split an' an' down, but for from bel' discouraged an' downcast, the Soles washed up at th' horse fountain an' set down on th' court house steps, militant an' determined t' succeed in th' town of his birth. All at once th' later chip business suggested itself t' him. He'd found himself. "T-day the Soles is knowin' wherever plater chips are crimped. T-day he's married, has two cars an' one child, an' never fails t' give an' encourage word t' all who need money.

Psychology of Color;

Tints of Our Clothes

Color, like music, speaks a universal language, says the Kansas City Star. If you buy a blue hat, you say one thing; if you buy a red one, you say quite another. Psychologists tell us that every thought of the mind has its appropriate tint; and that is why certain color symbols have come down to us unchanged through the ages. Poets, too, particularly Shakespeare, suppose of the "polar poets," are appreciative of the color language. So, whether you consider the colors you choose from the poetic, artistic or psychological point of view, you will be interested to know something about their symbolism when you go shopping.

The analogy of color often is drawn to the seasons of the year and the time of day or night, as for instance, black, by analogy to night and darkness, is the symbol of grief and death. Black is melancholy and sober, but of great strength. No color has so much power to impress as black. Gray, the color of dying fall, denotes fear; and green, through physical analogy to the shades of spring, youth and hope.

If a man really cares for a woman, it is said that he loves to see her in white. Why? Because, in the color language, white speaks of purity, innocence, goodness.

Take blue. This color is said to signify piety and sincerity, calm, deep, still and solid, it is the symbol of constancy. Blue is a tender and delicate color, even when most brilliant.

If colors speak, red shouts. It is the most positive and assertive of all colors. It connotes ardent heat, splendor, power. Chinese symbolism has it that red is the emblem of the passion of the Lord, signifying as it does, love, power, dignity. Red is the military color, significant of bloodshed and war.

Yellow, expressive in its brightest shades, for the better thoughts and things, is joyous and uplifting; when sallow and dull, it is symbolic of envy and jealousy.

Purple, "royal purple," is symbolical for dignity, stateliness and kingly power. It manages to be pleasing, even though pompous.

Various tests have been made to see what colors, if any, might be called favorites of most people. For wearing apparel, black and blue predominated; but red ranks high in the list.

Plaids Playing Part in Fashions of Today

Until recently plaids were relegated to the wardrobe of the juvenile members of society, but this season has witnessed a change of heart toward these decorative designs and in the sheerest stuffs, as well as in the more usual woolen and cotton plaids, they play an important part in the fashions of the day.

One French designer is responsible for several extremely pretty models fashioned of plaid chiffon, while another makes a stunning coat dress of plaid tulle in shades of red, brown, green and yellow. Nothing could be smarter or more striking than a three-piece costume of blue tulle in which the gray plaid lining matches the straight tulle tunic that reaches almost to the hem of the skirt.

Another clever way of using plaids is in the form of an evening cap made of plaid tulle in pastel colors. This is cut on circular lines and is trimmed with a deep flounce of black chantilly lace. It is worn over a frock of pale blue tulle.

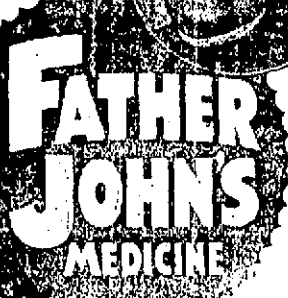

The costume that a man must wear. Make sport appear a bit unfair. Your mind so many chances claim, how can you keep it on the same?

ELECTION RESULT PLEASES STANLEY BALDWIN.

Stanley Baldwin, Tory leader, and one of the richest men in England, is shown with Mrs. Baldwin in the garden of their home in London, situated near the recent general election, which will return Baldwin to No. 10 Downing Street as the next British Premier.

Armistice Day!

Six years ago the din of battle was hushed! Men taxed almost beyond human endurance, laid aside the armament of devastation—glad to return to their families and former occupations.

Today, on the occasion of this momentous anniversary, this nation pays homage to the 70,000 men who fell upon the field of honor. Those men did not die or suffer in vain, for since that memorable November day of 1918 great strides have been made toward universal peace.

Let us be happy in the thought, that while our sacrifice was severe, the marks of battle were not indelible. America has risen from the blows of Mars!
